an example is the euroclinic hospital, which in the first half of the year registered a 23 percent growth, according to Fady Chreih, executive director.

Although Spain continues to face a 23.7 percent unemployment rate and significant household and public indebtedness, in the third quarter of 2013, the country emerged from recession.